A CENTURY OF EXCELLENCE

WELCOME TO WOODROFFES SOLICITORS

Founded in 1877 and having weathered two World Wars, including a bomb in 1940, Woodroffes Solicitors has remained a highly regarded family run firm throughout our history.

With approximately a dozen lawyers operating from our Belgravia offices, Woodroffes continues the tradition of a traditional, highly personal service which has reassured our clients for more than a century. Whilst embracing all the advantages of convenience and speed which modern technologies are able to offer our clients, the core values of a bespoke tailored solution with the personal attention of a solicitor throughout every aspect of each transaction remain at the heart of the firm's service...

OUR APPROACH

Our team is large enough to support and provide cover for the most complex and largest scale transactions we handle for our clients.

However, our clients are not assigned a team of lawyers with a range of levels of experience and expertise - all of our lawyers are senior, experienced professionals with impressive expertise in their areas of specialism...
